3. Types of Cookies

We use the following types of cookies on our websites:

Essential / Technical Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the proper functioning of the website. They are installed, in particular, to remember login sessions, enable the completion of forms and record whether you have been informed about the use of cookies.

Functional Cookies

These cookies remember your preferences and adapt the platform to your choices. For example, they may enable the automatic completion of the email address used during your most recent login to the platform.

Analytical Cookies

These cookies allow us to measure the number of visits and identify traffic sources. They help us determine which pages are popular and which are not.

We use this information to analyse statistics and improve the performance of our websites.

Our websites use, among others, solutions provided by Google, Mailchimp and Hotjar.

Marketing Cookies

These cookies allow advertising content to be tailored to users' interests, both on our website and on other websites.

They may be installed by our advertising partners.

Information obtained through these cookies, together with activity on other websites, may be used to create a profile of the user's interests.

Social Media Cookies

These cookies are installed by our partners to personalise advertising content displayed on social media platforms.

They are used to create a profile of the user's interests, allowing advertising content to be tailored to their individual needs and preferences.

4. Cookie Retention Period

Session Cookies

These cookies are stored on the user's device until they leave the website, for example by closing their web browser.

Persistent Cookies

These cookies remain on the user's device until they are manually deleted or until the retention period specified in the browser expires.

5. Types of Data Collected

The data collected through cookies may include:

- The IP address of the device used to access the website;
- The type of device;

- The amount of time spent on the website;
- Actions performed on the website;
- The location from which the connection is made.

6. How to Withdraw Consent and Manage Cookies

Some cookies are downloaded by your web browser when you visit a website.

To prevent cookies from being downloaded or stored, you can use the relevant settings in your web browser:

- Mozilla Firefox
- Google Chrome
- Microsoft Edge
- Safari

Disabling the storage or reading of cookies may result in certain website features not functioning fully or correctly. However, you will still be able to access and use the website.

7. Contact

If you have any questions regarding the processing of personal data or wish to exercise your rights, you can contact us using the details provided in Section 2, “Data Controller”.
